ABOUT EVENT

CFA Society India in partnership with FLAME University is pleased to invite you to an event on AI in Finance 2.0 hosted at the FLAME University campus in Lavale, Pune on 8th February, 2025.

Have you ever been curious about the massive wave of change that Artificial Intelligence (AI) is bringing to financial services and investment management?

With the advent of Generative AI, the paradigm shift is as monumental as it is inevitable.

Engage with insights directly from industry experts as they share how AI is redefining the Banking, Financial Services, and Insurance (BFSI) sector—facilitating more intelligent solutions, expediting decision-making processes, and enhancing the personalization of customer experiences.

WHAT WILL YOU DISCOVER?

How AI is driving profits in the BFSI sector

Innovative use cases of AI in credit, risk management, and customer engagement

The rise of hyper-personalized financial services

The transition from automation to human-focused decision-making

WHY ATTEND?

- Stay at the forefront of financial innovation
- Connect with industry leaders, AI experts, and innovators
- Discover how AI is reshaping businesses from coding to capitalism
